

USE OF “TRIPLE A MARKS” MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS

Ashburton Assurance Australasia (Ashburton) has provided you with a licence to use the “Triple A Marks” to promote your certification with Ashburton.

As one of Ashburton’s certified clients you are permitted to use the “Triple A Marks” in accordance with the requirements detailed in GLO-COR-GDE-03 Use of Ashburton’s Certification Mark. This is provided to all certified clients once certified with their exclusive “Triple A Certification Mark(s)” bearing the name of their organisation, the specific standard certified and their unique licence number and corresponding “Triple A Certification Footer Marks”.

The certified client will ensure that:

“any statement on product packaging or in accompanying information that the certified client has a certified management system. Product packaging is considered that which can be removed without the product disintegrating or being damaged. Accompanying information is considered as separately available or easily detachable. Type labels or identification plates are considered as part of the product. The statement shall in no way imply that product, process or service is certified by the means.”
